

David Housman Joins Vidiom Systems, Inc. as Vice President of Strategic Initiatives

Broomfield, CO – November 14, 2006 – Vidiom Systems, Inc., a leading provider of technology solutions and services to the cable and consumer electronics industries, today announced that David Housman has joined Vidiom as Vice President of Strategic Initiatives. “David’s experience and insight will help Vidiom refine its products and services offerings for the specific needs of the cable industry. He will also play a key role in managing Vidiom’s rapid growth and new business opportunities,” said Timothy R. Wahlers, President and CEO of Vidiom.

Mr. Housman brings to Vidiom 25 years of technology and business development experience in the communications industry, with the last 10 years at Charter Communications. At Charter, Mr. Housman provided strategic guidance over new business opportunities as well as executive sponsorship and oversight for the development and deployment of Charter’s high-speed data services and advanced set-top boxes including DVRs. Mr. Housman also served as Charter’s chief negotiator, along with representatives from other major cable operators and the NCTA, for set-top box and conditional access agreements in Washington, DC and participated on numerous CableLabs board committees including DOCSIS and Open Cable Certification.
